

A Domestic Violence Shelter serving Broome County, NY

SOS Shelter, Inc.
P.O. Box 393
Endicott, New York 13761

Administrative Office (607) 748-7453
Advocacy Office (607) 748-5174
Fax: (607) 748-5166

Job Opportunity
On-Call Staff
Part time
Open until filled

Date: February 1, 2012

Job Location: Residential Shelter

Work days per week: As needed: Sun, Mon, Tues, Wed, Thurs, Fri., and Sat

Shift: First, Second and Third Shifts

Education required: This position requires a High School diploma or a G.E.D. Understanding of basic health and safety rules as they relate to security and cleanliness. . Any prior training related to human services is desirable.

Licenses/Certificates required: New York State Driver's License

Benefits: None available.

Job Description: The On Call Staff position supports the work of the regular SOS Shelter staff in delivering services to victims of domestic violence by being available on-call to assist when needed. Work of the position may involve crisis intervention, resident assistance, facilitates maintenance or other duties as needed. Work is typically part-time, with either limited notice or by schedule and may involve work on any shift.

To apply for this position, please print out and complete an SOS employment application from our website and mail to: P.O. Box 393, Endicott, NY 13761.